	Document No./Name	M-310 KCSP Financial Eligibility
	Effective Date	January 6, 2022

I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

In determining financial eligibility for KCSP, the child must first meet the Child's Income Test. If the child passes this test, a determination must then be made on the child's eligibility considering the family income.

 * These tests are automatically applied in the LITE system  at application, redetermination and when a change in income or household composition occurs.

M-311-KCSP - PO CHILD'S INCOME TEST

In determining the child's eligibility for KCSP, consider only the child's income. If the income is less than * $450, the requirement is met.

M-312-KCSP - PO FAMILY INCOME TEST

To qualify for payment through the KCSP program, the family's annual income must be less than 150% of the federal poverty threshold, in accordance with the size of the family applying for the subsidy. The federal poverty guidelines are updated annually. (Refer to document M-410-KCSP)

II. PROCEDURES

M-312-KCSP - PR FAMILY INCOME TEST

For KCSP, the caretaker relative's family is defined to include:

- the eligible child,
- the qualified relative,
- the legal spouse of the qualified relative,
- the minor children of the qualified relative, and
- anyone else residing in the home for whom the qualified relative claims financial responsibility.

NOTE: On the LITE Relationship – Details screen, include all family members defined above. In the KCSP Relationship Information section, state whether the caretaker relative is financially responsible for each member.

Who Is Not Included in the Filing Unit

For KCSP, the caretaker relative's Family Size does not include a family member who is a:

- SSI recipient. **

* Note: SSI recipients must have a LITE Disability Record. LITE will not count income for any family member or qualified relative receiving SSI as long as there is an active LITE Disability Record for that member.

- Minor child foster care recipient.

Note: Children receiving a foster care payment must have a Foster Child relationship in LITE. The caretaker relative must have a Foster Parent relationship to the foster child. LITE will not count  income for children receiving foster care. ***

For these income tests, * LITE will  count all income according to B-600-FITAP with the following exceptions:

Count gross earned income, allowing no earned income disregards.

Do not count FITAP or KCSP payments.
