I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The household must have been residing within the geographical area authorized for the DSNAP at the time in which the disaster occurred. Such a household may be eligible even if it is temporarily residing outside of the DSNAP geographical area but within the state at the time of application. Households who are temporarily residing outside of Louisiana are considered residents if they intend to return to Louisiana ***.

Residency within the DSNAP geographical area must be verified if possible. Refer to Chapter 4, B-920-SNAP, section B-921-SNAP for information regarding the verification of residency.

O-431-DSNAP SHELTERS

Households temporarily residing in a shelter are eligible for DSNAP if the household is not expected to remain in the shelter for the entire DSNAP benefit period and does expect to purchase food and prepare meals during the disaster benefit period.
