	Chapter No./Name	4 – Economic Stability (ES)
	Part No./Name	O – Disaster Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (DSNAP)
	Section No./Name	O-600-DSNAP TRANSITION FROM DSNAP
	Document No./Name	O-610-DSNAP Transition from DSNAP
	Effective Date	January 1, 2010

Households that are issued DSNAP benefits may apply for regular SNAP benefits prior to the expiration of the DSNAP benefit period, but may only receive regular SNAP benefits beginning from the first day of the month following the DSNAP benefit month or from the date of application, whichever is later.

EXAMPLE 1: The DSNAP benefit period is August 15 through September 14. The DSNAP benefit month is August. The household applied for and received DSNAP benefits on September 5. The household then applies for regular SNAP benefits on September 10. If eligible, regular SNAP benefits begin on September 10, the date of application.

EXAMPLE 2: The DSNAP benefit period is August 15 through September 14. The DSNAP benefit month is August. The household applied for and received DSNAP benefits on August 25. The household then applies for regular SNAP benefits on August 30. If eligible, regular SNAP benefits begin on September 1, the first day of the month following the DSNAP benefit month.

EXAMPLE 3: The DSNAP benefit period is August 15 through September 14. The DSNAP benefit month is September. The household applied for and received DSNAP benefits on August 25. The household then applies for regular SNAP benefits on September 10. If eligible, regular SNAP benefits begin on October 1, the first day of the month following the DSNAP benefit month.

In some disasters, information regarding transition to the regular SNAP will be automatically mailed to DSNAP households. Further guidance on this process will be issued at the time of the disaster.
