Information

Eligibility requirements

You may be eligible for the solidarity tax credit if you met all of the following requirements on December 31, 2025:

- You were 18 or older or, if you were younger than 18, you:
 - had a spouse;
 - were the mother or father of a child who lived with you; or
 - were recognized as an emancipated minor by a competent authority (such as a court).
- You were resident in Québec.
- You or your spouse (see the definition opposite) was:
 - a Canadian citizen;
 - a permanent resident or a protected person, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; or
 - a temporary resident or the holder of a temporary resident permit, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, who had been living in Canada for the last 18 months.

However, you are not eligible for the solidarity tax credit in the following cases:

- You were confined to a prison or similar institution on December 31, 2025, and, in 2025, you were confined for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days.
- Retraite Québec made a Family Allowance payment with regard to you for the month of December 2025 (unless you turned 18 during that month).
- You and your spouse (if applicable) were refugee protection claimants on December 31, 2025.

Definitions

Dwelling

A house, an apartment or a similar place of residence in which a person ordinarily eats and sleeps, and that is equipped with kitchen and bathroom facilities.

NOTE

A room in a hotel establishment or rooming house is not a dwelling.

Eligible dwelling

A dwelling (for example, a house, a room or an apartment in a duplex or condominium building) located in Québec in which an individual ordinarily lives and that is the individual's principal residence.

The following are not eligible dwellings:

- a dwelling in low-rental housing within the meaning of the Civil Code of Québec, such as an HLM or a dwelling for which the Société d'habitation du Québec agrees to pay an amount towards the rent;
- a dwelling in a facility where a public institution or private institution under agreement (publicly funded) operates a hospital centre, a residential and long-term care centre (CHSLD) or a rehabilitation centre;
- a dwelling located in a hospital centre or reception centre within the meaning of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons;
- a dwelling for which an amount is paid toward rent under a program governed by the National Housing Act (for example, a dwelling located in a housing cooperative);
- a dwelling located in a building or residential facility where the services of an intermediate resource or a family-type resource are offered;
- a room located in the principal residence of the landlord where fewer than three rooms are rented or offered for rent, unless the room has either a separate entrance from the outside or sanitary facilities separate from those used by the landlord;
- a room located in a hotel establishment or in a rooming house that is leased or subleased for a period of fewer than 60 consecutive days.

Owner

A person who holds a title deed in the land register.

Spouse

A person from whom you have not been living separate and apart for 90 days or more because of the breakdown of your relationship, and:

- to whom you are married;
- with whom you are living in a civil union; or
- who is your de facto spouse.

A de facto spouse is a person who:

- is living in a conjugal relationship with you and is the biological or adoptive parent (legally or in fact) of a child of whom you are also the parent; or
- has been living in a conjugal relationship with you for at least 12 consecutive months (if you were separated for fewer than 90 days, the 12-month period is considered not to have been interrupted).

Tenant or subtenant

A person who is leasing or subleasing a dwelling and is therefore responsible for paying the rent.

IMPORTANT – If you did not receive an RL-31 slip

Tenants and subtenants of an eligible dwelling

The landlord of any building that includes an eligible dwelling must issue an RL-31 slip to every person who was a tenant or subtenant of the dwelling on December 31, 2025. If you or your spouse has not received an RL-31 slip by mid-March 2026, contact your landlord. If you are still unable to get the slip, contact us.

Owners of a residence located in a territory where municipal tax bills are not issued

In territories where no municipal tax bills are issued, the body that has jurisdiction over the territory must issue an RL-31 slip to every person who, on December 31, 2025, was the owner of a residence in that territory. If you or your spouse has not received an RL-31 slip by mid-March 2026, contact the body in question. If you are still unable to get the slip, contact us.
