

Tax Credit for Tuition or Examination Fees (Claiming or Transferring the Credit)

Only you, the student, must enclose Schedule T with your return.

Complete Part A to calculate:

- the tax credit for tuition or examination fees that you can claim;
- the tuition or examination fees that you can carry forward to future years.

Complete Part B to calculate the tax credit that you can transfer to your or your spouse's father, mother, grandfather or grandmother.

A Tax credit for tuition or examination fees and amount that can be carried forward

The amount that you enter on line 398 of your return must equal the total of lines 38 and 46 below.

1 Tuition or examination fees that qualify for the 20% tax credit rate

Complete this section if you have an amount that you can carry forward to 2025 or future years for tuition or examination fees paid for 1997 through 2012 or for fees paid for 2013 that qualify for the 20% tax credit rate.

Unused portion of tuition or examination fees (line 40 of Schedule T for 2024 or the amount shown in this respect on your 2024 notice of assessment).

If you did not complete Schedule T for 2024, see the guide for instructions on how to determine the amount to enter on line 34.

Multiply line 34 by 20%.
