I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The household must include all individuals who were living together on the date of the disaster occurrence and who live and eat together as of the date of the DSNAP application. Individuals temporarily staying with the household or individuals with whom the household is temporarily staying are not included.

Members of the household who were living together on the date the disaster occurred but who are not together on the DSNAP application date are considered separate DSNAP households.

EXAMPLE 1: The date of the disaster is July 18 and the date of the DSNAP application is July 30. The applicant and her husband temporarily move in with the applicant's mother because their house is flooded. The mother is not included in the DSNAP household because the applicant and her husband are temporarily staying there.

The oldest child would be listed as the head of the household and the grandmother would be the authorized representative. The grandmother would be a separate household if she is also eligible for DSNAP.
