I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The parent or other caretaker relative who is included in the assistance unit must participate in the STEP program unless he/she meets an exemption or has been granted good cause.

II. PROCEDURES

At intake, the FITAP adult(s)/parent(s) will be given a thorough explanation of the STEP Program. They will be given the form STEP 2, Responsibilities of Mandatory Work-Eligible Recipients of Cash Assistance Programs – STEP Participation Requirements, * and the OFS DD1 IS, Direct Deposit/SVC Informational Sheet. The worker will explain to them that they will be required to participate in a work activity, unless they have been granted good cause as defined in P-530-STEP. If the applicant claims incapacity, a disability, or the need to provide care for a family member living in the home who is incapacitated or disabled, verification must be requested by the FITAP worker. Allow at least ten days for the applicant to provide the verification to support the claim.

The Family Assessment will be completed on all adult(s)/parent(s) included in the FITAP income unit prior to completion of the Family Success Agreement.

The STEP Coach will complete the Family Assessment and the Family Success Agreement with the client. (Refer to document P-390-STEP for completion of the Family Success Agreement).
